

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

FUTURE SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Sukkos Holiday Program 2019

OUTSTANDING SHIURIM FROM WORLD-RENOWNED RABBIS

Rabbi Gavriel Friedman

Originally from New York, Rabbi Friedman has spent the last 15 years studying and teaching throughout Jerusalem. He is currently teaching at Aish HaTorah Jerusalem, and is a featured speaker for the Jewish Women's Renaissance Program. He has lectured across the U.S. and the world, including South Africa, Europe, Canada, Costa Rica, Panama and Mexico. Rabbi Friedman inspires men, women, and children across the Jewish spectrum, presenting Torah concepts in an intriguing yet entertaining fashion. Rabbi Friedman currently resides in Yerushalayim with his wife and children.

Rabbi Chanan Gordon

Rabbi Chanan (Antony) Gordon has become one of the most sought after presenters/lecturers by a wide range of organizations. From his days as a stand-up comic in Johannesburg, South Africa, to organizing a major music concert while a student at Harvard Law School, to representing (as a wealth manager and business manager) some of the most prominent athletes and celebrities in the world, Rabbi Gordon's life experiences are unique. Rabbi Gordon is the co-author of the renowned article titled "Will Your Grandchild Be Jewish" (co-authored with Richard Horowitz, the President of Aish International), an analysis of the national Jewish population census carried out approximately every 10 years in America which was translated into more than 10 languages and has been cited in some of the most prestigious publications in the world.

In addition to being a prolific public speaker, Rabbi Gordon is also the host of "The Antony Gordon Show" (iTunes/Spotify); "Straight Talk with Antony Gordon" and weekly radio talk show as well as being a regular contributor to "Ya'ated Ne'eman" and "The Jewish Journal."

Antony/Chanan is a Managing Director of MGO and is based in Los Angeles.

Never boring, always inspiring, nobody will leave their seat without some nuggets of wisdom for life.

Rabbi Zev Leff

Rabbi Leff, a close talmid of Rav Mordechai Gifter, zt"l, was the rav of the Young Israel of Greater Miami for nine years. In 1983, he made Aliyah and became the rav and morah d'asra (leader of the community) of Moshav Matityahu, a community located in central Israel. Today, in addition to his communal duties, Rabbi Leff is also rosh yeshivah of Yeshiva Gedolah Matisyahu, and oversees the 20-member kollel on the Moshav. Additionally, he teaches a group of unaffiliated Israelis who live near Moshav Matityahu and lectures at several leading Israeli yeshivot, seminaries and institutions, including the Orthodox Union's Israel Center. He is a featured speaker at the conventions of the Orthodox Union, Agudath Israel and Torah Umesorah.

Rabbi Dovid Orlofsky

Rabbi Dovid Orlofsky was raised on Long Island New York, the quietest of six boys. He learnt in Yeshiva Chofetz Chaim and Yeshiva Heichal Hatorah. He received his semicha in 1983 by HaRav Avraham Kopshitz zt"l, former Rav of Neve Zvi. He made aliyah with his family in 1988 and served as the mashgiach ruchani in Yeshiva Ohr Dovid for five years. He has taught in the Discovery Seminar, Aish Hatorah Fellowships and Yeshiva Ohr Somayach and is currently on the staff of Darchei Binah Seminary and Neve Yerushalayim College for Women as well as other yeshivos and seminaries. He has lectured for almost twenty years in the Ohr LaGolah Rabbinical training institute. Rabbi Orlofsky is a popular lecturer internationally where his combination of humor, novel insights and inspiration touch the lives of thousands. Rabbi Orlofsky appears regularly on radio programs in Israel and his articles have been published regularly, including several years as the chinuch columnist in the Hamodia.